

Innovation Vouchers

Enabling innovation through R&D

Are you a Rhode Island business needing to tap into external expertise to develop new products or processes?

Apply for a grant of up to $50,000 to partner with a local university, research center, or medical center to support project-specific R&D assistance.

Who can apply?

Rhode Island businesses with fewer than 500 employees in the state who are enthusiastic about an innovation that will move them to the next level.

Vouchers can be used for:

- Support towards commercializing a new product, process, or service.
- Access to scientific, engineering, and design expertise that fit your innovation need.
- Technological development and exploration to make your innovation come to life.
- Scale-to-market development of your innovative idea.
