REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

For: Rhode Island Tourism Economic Impact Analysis

The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (“the Corporation”) is soliciting a Request for Proposal from firm or firms qualified to create a model for measuring the economic impact model of travel and tourism to the state of Rhode Island.

Project Overview

The objective of this Request for Proposal (RFP) is to solicit proposals from qualified vendors to create a model for measuring the economic impact model of travel and tourism to the state of Rhode Island.

Background

Dedicated to stimulating economic growth in Rhode Island, the Commerce Corporation is a customer service-focused agency that invests in Rhode Island’s businesses. By helping to navigate the public sector, providing financing vehicles, deploying state incentives, and investing in networking opportunities, the Commerce Corporation is in the business of business.

A quasi-public agency, the corporation serves as a government and community resource to help streamline the business expansion in, and relocation to, Rhode Island. The agency assists companies with commercial real estate, business financing, workforce training and other relevant issues.

SCOPE OF WORK

Program Overview and Background

The Commerce Corporation is seeking a vendor to create an economic impact model of travel and tourism to be updated on a periodic basis. The economic impact model should incorporate a consistent methodology that communicates the value of the tourism industry to the State of Rhode Island that can be tracked over time at the state level and regional levels.

The Economic Impact of Travel and Tourism study should include:

- Visitor volumes by major segment (domestic business/leisure, domestic day/overnight) from a syndicated survey provider as well as international volume estimates
- Direct travel spending in Rhode Island with breakout of spending by visitor segment (domestic/international, business/leisure) and by spending category (lodging, recreation, food & beverage, transportation, shopping, etc.)
- Indirect and induced impacts on business activity and Gross State Product
- Direct, Indirect and Induced Employment Supported by Travel
- Direct, Indirect and Induced Travel Generated Payroll Income in Rhode Island
- Contribution of Travel on federal, state, and local tax receipts with detail by type of tax
Regional analysis for Rhode Island regions, including:
1. Blackstone Valley
2. Block Island
3. Newport & Bristol County
4. Providence
5. Warwick
6. South County
7. East Bay (Bristol County)

The economic impact study will include a report on the economic impact of travel to Rhode Island for calendar year 2015 and provide comparable data for the previous four years.

The methodology developed shall be detailed in the appendix of the final report in language that can be clearly understood by non-technical readers. The vendor shall notify the Commerce Corporation, in writing, if there are any concerns with data sources or any other issues with the methodology and recommend solutions prior to the due date for each deliverable based on the timeline agree upon by all parties.
