Rule 1. Purpose.

These rules and regulations (the “Rules”) are promulgated to set forth the principles, policies, and practices of the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) in implementing and administering the innovation network matching grant program created under

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation

Rules and Regulations for the Innovation Network Matching Grant Program

Chapter 64.28 of Title 42 of the Rhode Island General Laws, the Innovation Initiative Act (the “Act”).

Rule 2. Authority.

These Rules are promulgated pursuant to Chapter 64.28 of Title 42 of the General Laws. These Rules have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Rhode Island Administrative Procedures Act, Chapter 35 of Title 42 of the General Laws.

Rule 3. Scope.

These Rules shall apply to any application received by the Corporation for a grant under the Act. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules to the contrary, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all general powers set forth in the Act that are necessary or convenient to effect its purposes and these Rules shall be liberally construed so as to permit the Corporation to effectuate the purposes of the Act and other applicable state laws and regulations. The Corporation, upon an affirmative vote of its board of directors, may provide exemption from the application of such portion of these Rules as may be warranted by extenuating circumstances arising from such application, based upon the written recommendation of the staff of the Corporation delineating the reasons for such exemption. An applicant seeking an exemption under this provision must demonstrate extenuating circumstances by showing either (i) that the application of a component of these Rules is inconsistent with a requirement of federal, state, or local law; or (ii) that the application of a component of these Rules is not feasible or appropriate for the given project type. Under no circumstances will lack of time or ability be deemed extenuating circumstances. The Corporation will only grant such exemptions as it determines are authorized by law and consistent with the safeguarding of public funds. The Corporation shall have no obligation to grant an exemption in any case, even if extenuating circumstances exist.

Rule 4. Severability.

If any provision of these Rules, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remainder of the Rules shall not be affected thereby.

Rule 5. Definitions.

The following words and terms, when used in these Rules, shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

- (5) a projected budget and budget narrative for the Project;
 - (6) biographies of key staff members;
 - (7) descriptions of any external organizations that the Applicant intends to partner with on the Project, including a description of the governance of any such organizations;
 - (8) a description of the amount of the Match being contributed to the Project; for a Match of in-kind services, the Applicant shall include a valuation of the services to be provided together with a detailed explanation of the valuation method, and evidence appropriate to substantiate such valuation;
 - (9) a description of the Applicant's previous outcomes and effectiveness in endeavors similar to the Project, which may include third-party evaluation, information tracked by the Applicant, testimonials, and other such information;
 - (10) a description of how the Applicant will monitor the effectiveness and impact of the Project;
 - (11) a delineation of any other federal, State or municipal incentives, grants, tax credits, or other aid that will or may be received or requested by the Applicant in relation to the Project;
 - (12) and such other information as the Corporation deems appropriate.
- (b) An Applicant may be charged a one-time, non-refundable application fee by the Corporation. The Corporation shall annually publish a fee schedule on its website commencing on or before December 31, 2015.

Rule 8. Application Review and Approval.

- (a) Each Application shall be reviewed to confirm compliance with the Act and these Rules, and the Corporation may reject any incomplete or deficient Application.

(b) The Corporation may require the submission of additional information in connection with any Application or the revision of an Application, and may permit the resubmission of an Application rejected as being incomplete or deficient.

(c) After submission of a complete Application and review by the Corporation in accordance with the requirements of the Act and these Rules, the Corporation will determine whether to award a Grant to the Applicant. In selecting Applicants to receive Grants, the Corporation will prioritize those Applicants with larger commitments of matching funds or in-kind services contributed to the Project. In determining whether to approve a Grant, factors the Corporation may consider, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) quality of the services to be provided by the Project;
- (2) quality and feasibility of the Project design;
- (3) whether the Project fills a gap in the Rhode Island innovation ecosystem by, for example, reaching underserved or high impact sectors or offering services that are difficult to obtain;
- (4) the Applicant's demonstrated history of success in providing services of the type contemplated by the Project;
- (5) qualifications and experience of the personnel implementing the Project;
- (6) capacity for sustaining and/or growing the Project after exhaustion of the Grant and Match;
- (7) the strength of the Applicant's methodology for evaluating impacts of the Project; and
- (8) the Project's potential for catalytic impact including the potential to increase the number of new full-time Employees in one or more industry sectors.

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation

(d) If the Corporation determines that it will not approve a Grant for an Applicant, it shall notify the Applicant in writing of such decision.

(e) The Corporation may set periodic Application deadlines that will be published on the Corporation's web site from time to time.

Rule 9. Grant Agreement.

(a) Upon approval of a Grant for an Applicant, the Corporation and the Applicant will enter into a Grant Agreement before any Grant amount can be provided to the Applicant. The Corporation, in its sole discretion, may cancel an approval if mutually agreeable terms cannot be met within 30 days of notification of the approval.

(b) In order to safeguard the expenditure of public funds and ensure that the disbursement of funds further the objectives of the Act, the Grant Agreement shall include, among others, the following terms:

- (1) the maximum Grant amount;
- (2) a description of the Project and a requirement that the Grant can only be used for work outlined in that description;
- (3) a provision that Grant payments shall be made in installments upon the completion of specific milestones and the Corporation's receipt of evidence demonstrating that such milestones have been achieved and, if applicable, evidence of actual Project costs;
- (4) a requirement that the Project be completed within a specified timeframe;
- (5) an indemnification provision;
- (6) reporting and program evaluation requirements;

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation

- (7) a provision prohibiting transfer of the Grant; and
- (8) any other provisions that the Corporation determines are appropriate.

Rule 10. Revocation.

(a) In the event that any information provided by the Applicant in its Application is found to be willfully false, the Corporation shall deny the issuance of or revoke any Grant in whole or in part, which revocation shall be in addition to any other criminal or civil penalties that the Applicant and/or the relevant officials of the Applicant may be subject to under applicable law.

(b) The Corporation shall deny the issuance of or revoke any Grant if an Applicant or its successor-in-interest is convicted of bribery, fraud, theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, and/or extortion involving the State, any state agency or political subdivision of the state.

(c) The Corporation may provide for additional rights and remedies in any Grant Agreement, which will be in addition to the rights provided under this Rule.

Rule 11. Discretion and Judicial Review.

(a) The Corporation shall not have any obligation to issue any Grant or make any other award or grant any benefits under the Act or these Rules, and may decline to issue a Grant to any Applicant, including those who have submitted a completed Application that meets the eligibility requirements of Rule 6.

(b) A review of an Application shall not constitute a “contested case” under the Administrative Procedures Act, Section 42-35-9 of the General Laws, and no opportunity to object to an Application shall be afforded, nor shall judicial review be available from a decision rendered by the Corporation in connection with any Application.
