VOTED: To approve the meeting minutes as presented to the Board.
RHODE ISLAND COMMERCE CORPORATION
MEETING OF DIRECTORS
PUBLIC SESSION
May 21, 2019

The Board of Directors of the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) met on May 21, 2019, in Public Session, beginning at 5:00 p.m. at the offices of the Corporation, located at 315 Iron Horse Way, Suite 101, Providence, Rhode Island 02908, pursuant to the public notice of meeting, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, as required by applicable Rhode Island law.

The following Directors were present and participated throughout the meeting as indicated: Governor Gina M. Raimondo, Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Directors absent were: Ronald O’Hanley, Mary Jo Kaplan, Mary Lovejoy, Vanessa Toledo-Vickers, and Karl Wadensten.

Also present were: Secretary of Commerce Stefan Pryor; Jesse Saglio, President & COO; and Douglas A. Giron, Esq.

1. CALL TO ORDER AND OPENING REMARKS.

Mr. Buonanno called the meeting to order at 5:08, indicating that a quorum was present.

2. TO CONSIDER THE APPROVAL OF MEETING MINUTES FOR THE MEETING HELD ON MARCH 26, 2019.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Hebert and seconded by Dr. Carriuolo, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve meeting minutes for the meeting held March 26, 2019 as presented to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: none.

3. TO CONSIDER THE SELECTION OF AN AUDIT FIRM FOR THE CORPORATION.

Lisa Lasky, the Corporation’s CFO, explain that Marcum LLP (“Marcum”) was the highest scoring response to a request for proposal (“RFP”) to conduct the Corporation’s annual audit. Ms. Lasky explained that the State’s Office of Auditor General (“Auditor General”) and Department of Accounts and Control (“Controller”) participated in reviewing, approving, and issuing the RFP, which resulted in two responses: one from Marcum and one from Blum Shapiro. She indicated that Marcum scored the highest mainly due to its proposed cost, which was lower than Blum Shapiro. In response to a question by Mr. McNally, Ms. Lasky stated that this year only two firms responded to the RFP, which was a decrease in responses from last year.

Josh Blum, the manager of the upcoming audit, was present. Mr. Hebert inquired as to the audit process, and Mr. Blum explained that it included, among other things, meeting the audit committee, members of the Auditor General and Controller office; determining risks and conducting a risk assessment; reviewing internal controls; ensuring that internal controls are working; identifying areas for improvement; and developing and executing an audit plan. Mr. Blum indicated that the goal is to have a draft audit report by September 15, 2019 and present that report to the Board no later than September 30, 2019. Ms. Lasky commented that the Auditor General and Controller review the draft audit report because the audit is ultimately included in the State’s financial statements. Mr. Kelly commented on his prior experience on the Audit Committee and the audit process.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Hebert and seconded by Dr. Carriuolo, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve Marcum LLP as auditor to the Corporation pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: none.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. TO CONSIDER AN EXTENSION OF TIME UNDER THE RHODE ISLAND QUALIFIED JOBS INCENTIVE PROGRAM FOR THE FOLLOWING COMPANIES:
   a. GOTHAM GREENS BUTTERHEAD, LLC
   b. INFOSYS LIMITED
   c. INFINITY MEAT SOLUTIONS, LLC

   Jeff Miller, Executive Vice President of Investments, explained that the Rhode Island Qualified Jobs Incentive Act of 2015 (“Statute”) requires a company that is awarded tax credits to begin creating jobs no more than two years from the Board’s approval of such tax credits. The Statute, he explained, also allows the Board to extend that two-year period by two additional six month periods. He indicated that the Statute does not, however, consider the length of time to finish ground-up construction, and accompanying delays regarding historic preservation.

   Mr. Miller indicated that three companies—Infosys Limited (“Infosys”), Gotham Greens Butterhead, LLC (“Gotham”), and Infinity Meat Solutions, LLC (“Infinity Meat”)—require extensions to create their initial number of jobs due to unanticipated delays. He stated that Gotham and Infinity are requesting that their eligibility commencement date be extended to January 1, 2020, and Infosys is requesting that its eligibility commencement date be extended to January 1, 2021. Mr. Miller indicated that Gotham encountered unanticipated permitting challenges due to the site’s proximity to water, and Infosys had an issue with an unexpected historic issue in the interior of the building that it is restoring, both of which led to construction delays.

Mr. McNally urged that the Corporation should examine and better understand why these delays occur to avoid this issue in the future. Mr. Miller stated that anticipating delays is difficult because the “but for” test required by the Statute requires, in some instances, the Corporation to evaluate an applicant for tax credits before that applicant has leased or bought property.

Secretary Pryor explained that in some instances, the encountered delays come from municipalities that do not have the capacity to take on issues that come with larger projects, and in other instances, the delays come from outmoded zoning codes. He noted that there is legislation pending before the General Assembly in an effort to address these issues and assist municipalities in carrying out their functions relative to development.

Ms. Sams commented that it is important to identify the issues that the Corporation has control over—that it can proactively address—and issues that it has no control over. Mr. Buonanno indicated that the Investment Committee discussed the proposed extensions in detail, and that the positive take away is that the jobs will still be created, even though they may be delayed. He noted that if the jobs were not going to be created, that would be a bigger issue than allowing additional time for companies to meet the job-creation requirements. Mr. Nee and Mr. Saglio discussed that there is no exact wage amount pledged in the incentive agreements for the newly-created jobs, but only that a minimum wage threshold would be met.

The Governor entered the meeting.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. McNally and seconded by Mr. Sams, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve an extension of time under the Rhode Island Qualified Jobs Incentive program for Gotham Greens Butterhead, LLC pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: none.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Herbert and seconded by Mr. McNally, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve an extension of time under the Rhode Island Qualified Jobs Incentive program for Infosys Limited pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.
Voting against the foregoing were: none.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Sams and seconded by Mr. McNally, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve an extension of time under the Rhode Island Qualified Jobs Incentive program for Infinity Meat Solutions, LLC pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: George Nee.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

5. TO CONSIDER FOR APPROVAL INNOVATION VOUCHERS.

Christine Smith explained that the three Innovation Vouchers before the board involved two knowledge providers—Brown University (“Brown”) and the University of Rhode Island (“URI”)—and a manufacturer pursuing an internal research and development project. She indicated that the three proposed vouchers cumulatively total approximately $131,000.

Ms. Smith stated that Rite-Solutions, Inc. (“Rite-Solutions”) is seeking its second Innovation Voucher for continued work with URI’s computer science department. She noted that Rite-Solutions’ first voucher was to develop artificial intelligence in submarine systems to predict system failures. The proposed voucher, she explained, will be utilized to develop artificial intelligence to increase the precision of sonar systems.

Ms. Smith stated that Tank Vision, Inc. (“Tank”) is a fuel and oil delivery start-up company. She further stated that Tank participated in MassChallenge, is currently located in Social Enterprise Greenhouse, and intends to remain in the State. The proposed voucher, Ms. Smith explained, is to assist Tank in developing cost-efficient fuel/oil delivery technology with Brown.

Trans-Tex, LLC (“Trans-Tex”), Ms. Smith stated, is a textile manufacturer that specialized in manufacturing of webbed items such as lanyards, shoelaces, and seatbelts. Ms. Smith explained that Trans-Tex will utilize the proposed Innovation Voucher to expand its manufacturing into neoprene customization.

In response to a question by Dr. Carriuolo, Ms. Smith stated that several companies, like Rite-Solutions, work with local colleges and universities to involve students. Tom Santos, a representative of Rite-Solutions, explained the reciprocal benefits of working with URI. In response to a question by Mr. Hebert, Ms. Smith stated that URI has twenty-two participants in the Innovation Voucher program; Brown has eight; Rhode Island Hospital has nine; and New England Institute of Technology, the VA Medical Center, and Roger Williams University each have a few.

Brian McBride, a representative of Tank, answered a question by Mr. Buonanno, explaining that forty percent of fuel/oil deliveries can be eliminated if the fuel/oil provider knew how much oil was in a customer’s fuel/oil tank. He explained that there are tank-monitoring systems currently available on the market, but they are too expensive for small scale commercial application; so much so, that if Tank were to purchase such a system, the cost would outweigh any benefit of the new system. Mr. McBride explained that Tank has developed a more cost-efficient product, which is a network of receivers installed on company vehicles that collect fuel-level data from a customer’s home. He indicated that the proposed technology could save companies up to thirty-five percent of their delivery costs per year. In response to a question by Mr. Hebert, Mr. McBride stated that Tank has invested over $400,000 into this technology and has a working, proven prototype that can measure fuel/oil levels in a house that is over two miles away. He further stated that he intends to launch Tank in the first quarter of 2020.

Phil Barr, a representative of Trans-Tex, described Trans-Tex’s fourteen-year growth from fourteen employees and $1.5 million in revenue to over eighty-five employees and $9 million in revenue. He indicated that Trans-Tex prints and manufactures textiles into promotional items. He explained that Trans-Tex has developed technology to produce continuous runs of narrow webbing textiles, which Trans-Tex distributes nationally. He explained Trans-Tex’s opportunity to enter into the neoprene market.

Dr. Carriuolo stated that she was impressed at how enthusiastically the recipients spoke about not only their respective businesses, but also about helping others. Mr. Hebert indicated his approval of Innovation Vouchers as a low-risk way to serve as an impetus for new technologies.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Hebert and seconded by Dr. Carriuolo, the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve the Innovation Vouchers pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: none.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

6. TO CONSIDER THE ENGAGEMENT OF CONVENTION SPORTS & LEISURE INTERNATIONAL LLC TO PROVIDE CONSULTING SERVICES.

Joe Riccio, Senior Economic Advisor, explained that before the Board for approval was the engagement of Convention Sports & Leisure International, LLC (“CSL”) to conduct an evaluation, analysis, and negotiation of responses to requests for proposals relative to McCoy Stadium (“McCoy”) and downtown Pawtucket redevelopment. Mr. Riccio explained that CSL provided the only response to a request for proposal for this engagement, and is a Frisco, Texas-based company that has worked nationally relative to repurposing and reuse of sport facilities. Secretary Pryor noted that CSL has previously provided services to the Corporation, and that he was impressed with CSL’s work product. In response to a question by Mr. McNally, Mr. Riccio and Mr. Saglio explained that only one response was received to the request for proposal likely because of the size of the project and the amount of flexibility required in the engagement. Secretary Pryor answered a question by Mr. Hebert, indicating that the Corporation and City of Pawtucket jointly issued the request for proposal for this engagement, and that the request for proposals was intentionally broader than the reuse of McCoy, also including proposed revitalizing uses for downtown Pawtucket. Secretary Pryor further responded, stating that six applicants have applied for uses of McCoy: two baseball teams, two soccer teams, and two entertainment companies. The Governor commended the Corporation’s staff in finding new uses for McCoy after the PawSox move to Worcester.

Upon motion duly made by Mr. Sams and seconded by Dr. Carriuolo the following vote was adopted:

VOTED: To approve the engagement of Convention Sports & Leisure International LLC pursuant to the Resolution submitted to the Board.

Voting in favor of the foregoing were: Bernard Buonanno, III, Dr. Nancy Carriuolo, Tim Hebert, Jason Kelly, Michael McNally, George Nee, and Donna Sams.

Voting against the foregoing were: none.

A copy of the resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

The Governor introduced Heather Evans, the Corporation’s new Chief Marketing Officer, and provided the Board with a background on Ms. Evans. She noted that Ms. Evans has the ability to advance the Corporation’s business attraction marketing. Ms. Evans answered several questions by several Board members.

The Governor indicated that the legislative session was in its final weeks, and that she has proposed continuations of the Corporation’s programs. She noted that previously, the State’s annual commercial development was about $84 million; however, last year, it increased to $1.3 billion, which is directly related to the Corporation’s development programs.

There being no further business in Public Session, the meeting was adjourned by unanimous consent at 6:08 p.m. upon motion made by Mr. Herbert and seconded by Mr. Nee.

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation
Qualified Jobs Incentive Tax Credits – Economic Impact Analysis
GEV Wind Power US, LLC Application

Introduction
The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) may issue Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits to GEV Wind Power US, LLC (“the Company”), an Austin, Texas-based provider of wind turbine maintenance services. The Company is a subsidiary of GEV Group, a leading UK-based provider of energy engineering services. The credits would be issued in connection with the Company’s decision relocate its U.S. head office to a leased site in North Kingston, and to establish at the same site facilities for training wind turbine maintenance workers – its own, as well as workers employed by other wind power companies.

The Company is expected to request Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits with an estimated net value of approximately $1.930 million. Subject to approval of the requested credits, the Company would begin its operations in Rhode Island with 26 qualifying employees, rising to 123 qualifying employees.

This analysis was prepared by Appleseed, a consulting firm with more than twenty years of experience in economic impact analysis.

Jobs Analysis
Annual operations
As noted above, the Company intends to add 123 qualifying employees at its new facility during its first three years. Table 1 summarizes the categories in which these jobs will be created (as of 2022), and median earnings for each category.

Based on data provided by the Company, and using the IMPLAN input-output modeling system, Appleseed estimates that when the facility is fully staffed, ongoing operations associated with the 123 full-time jobs the Company would be committed to adding and maintaining will directly and indirectly support:

- 137 jobs in Rhode Island;
- $8.67 million in annual earnings (in 2020 dollars);
- $19.43 million in statewide economic output; and
- An increase of $13.67 million in Rhode Island’s annual GDP.

These impacts are summarized below in Table 2.
Table 2: Direct, indirect and total annual impact of ongoing operations (employment in FTE; income, value-added and output in millions of 2022 dollars)

In addition to the impacts on employment, earnings, output and state GDP cited above, expansion of the Company’s operations in Rhode Island would generate a projected increase of approximately $508,000 in annual state tax revenues, including:
- $325,000 in state personal income taxes paid by workers newly employed by the Company in its new operations in Rhode Island, or by Rhode Island workers whose jobs are indirectly attributable to the Company’s new facility;
- $142,000 in state sales taxes paid on those workers’ taxable household spending; and
- $41,000 in state business taxes.

Hiring

GEV’s normal practice is to recruit from complementary industries, such as boat building, as well as partnering states’ departments of labor and training and educational institutions. Interested applicants would then be interviewed by experienced GEV hiring managers and other relevant managers as required.

Benefits

GEV will offer its employee a comprehensive health and wellness benefits package, including medical, dental, vision and disability coverage.

Impact

The state fiscal impact of the requested tax credits is estimated to be approximately $1.9 million in foregone state revenue. Direct and indirect economic and fiscal benefits of the proposed project include the estimated increase in annual state GDP of $13.67 million in 2022 the estimated associated job creation, and a gross increase of approximately $5.45 million in personal income, sales and business tax revenues during the twelve-year commitment period beginning in 2019. These benefits are detailed in the foregoing analysis.

In addition to the economic and tax revenue impacts cited above, the Company’s new Rhode Island facility would benefit Rhode Island in other ways, including:
- Providing opportunities for Rhode Island residents to train for jobs in a growing industry
- Bringing in trainees from other states and other companies who will spend money locally during their time in Rhode Island
- Reinforcing the state’s attractiveness as a location for firms in other marine-based industries, and its reputation as a leader in the development of the region’s ocean economy
Beyond the fiscal impact noted above, there is no anticipated financial exposure to the state. Various features of the Qualified Jobs Incentive program mitigate risk to the state; and the value of Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits would be determined on the basis of the number of people actually employed and the wages actually paid by the Company.

Section 208. Delivery of the Bonds. The Authenticating Agent shall authenticate and deliver the Bonds when there have been filed with or delivered to the Trustee all items required by Section 210 of the Master Indenture.

Section 209. Taxability of Interest on the Bonds.

(i) Additional Interest. In the event of a Determination of Taxability that the interest on any principal amount of the Bonds is not exempt from gross income of the holders thereof for federal income tax purposes for any period, the outstanding principal amount of the Bonds shall bear interest for such period (other than for a period for which the collection of the applicable federal income tax is barred) and thereafter at a per annum rate equal to the Taxable Rate. Following a Determination of Taxability, Purchaser shall promptly give written notice of such determination and the date on which the Taxable Rate commenced (the "Taxability Date") to CommerceRI and RIAC, and shall make a notation of the taxability of interest on the Bonds. The Bonds shall bear interest at the Taxable Rate from and after the Taxability Date until the final payment of the Bonds, as applicable, regardless of whether such payment occurs before or after a Determination of Taxability is made. The additional interest shall be payable on the same dates as the interest stated on the Bonds, except that additional interest for any period ending on or before the Interest Payment Date next preceding the Determination of Taxability shall be payable within thirty (30) days after Purchaser gives notice of a Determination of Taxability. Although a claim for additional interest on a Bond that accrued during the period from the Taxability Date until the Interest Payment Date immediately following the Determination of Taxability may be assigned with written notice by Purchaser, it shall not be transferable by a transfer of the Bond, and such additional interest shall be payable to that person or those persons who were owners of said Bond for the applicable periods, or their assigns.

(ii) Reimbursement. RIAC will promptly reimburse each owner of the Bonds to whom additional interest is payable hereunder an amount that (after deduction of all federal, state and local taxes required to be paid by such owner of the Bonds in respect of the receipt of such amount less any tax benefit resulting from the deductibility of such amount for purposes of such taxes) is equal to all interest and penalties, if any, paid to the United States (including attorneys' fees, court costs and other out-of-pocket costs incurred by such owner of the Bonds) as a consequence of the failure to include the interest on the Bonds in the federal gross income of such owner of the Bonds prior to notice of the determination.

(iii) Reserved.

(iv) Determination of Taxability. Purchaser shall not be responsible to CommerceRI or RIAC for or be liable for any damages as a consequence of any failure to notify CommerceRI or RIAC of the change in interest rate on the Bonds as provided in Section 209(a)(i), nor shall the failure of Purchaser to determine that interest is taxable after examining the facts creating the possibility of taxability preclude it from subsequently reexamining the same facts or other facts and making a Determination of Taxability. In the event of a correction to a Determination of Taxability that provides for an earlier Taxability Date, RIAC shall pay to Purchaser all additional amounts due as a result of such earlier Taxability Date. In the event of a correction to a Determination of Taxability that provides for a later Taxability Date, Purchaser shall return any amounts paid by RIAC on account of such earlier Taxability Date that were not properly due.

Purchaser shall not be required to appeal or resort to further administrative or judicial proceedings seeking to reverse any governmental assertion or conclusion that interest is taxable, provided that if CommerceRI and RIAC provide indemnity satisfactory to Purchaser for its costs and expenses, Purchaser shall cooperate with RIAC in any administrative or judicial proceeding RIAC may initiate for the purpose of reversing any such assertion or conclusion, but nothing in this Section or in this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture will be deemed to require Purchaser to disclose its tax returns or other confidential information nor to prevent Purchaser from closing any tax year by agreement with the relevant taxing authority. A Determination of Taxability under Section 209(a)(ii) shall be conclusive as to CommerceRI and RIAC for the purposes of this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture and the Bonds, but neither that determination nor this sentence shall be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind in any governmental proceeding relating to any federal tax liability of any person.

(v) Additional Provisions.

(A) If Purchaser receives notice from the Internal Revenue Service of a claim or assessment that interest on the Bonds is taxable, the Purchaser shall provide notice thereof to CommerceRl and RIAC within ten (10) business days after receipt.

(B) Purchaser shall have the right to obtain a written opinion of a nationally recognized bond counsel pursuant to Section 209(a)(i) hereof, at the expense of RIAC, upon delivery by Purchaser to RIAC of a letter from Purchaser's outside or internal accountants stating that, in his, her or its reasonable opinion, interest on the Bonds is includable in the gross income of Purchaser for federal income tax purposes and stating the reasons for such determination.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision of this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture to the contrary, a determination that interest on the Bonds is taxable as set forth in this Section 209 shall not constitute an Event of Default under the Master Indenture or this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture.

Section 210. Increased Costs; Capital Adequacy.

(a) Increased Costs; Capital Adequacy.

(i) If the adoption, effectiveness or phase-in, after the date hereof, of any applicable law, rule or regulation, or any change therein, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by Purchaser with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency (each, a "Regulatory Change"):

(A) shall subject Purchaser to any imposition or other charge with respect to any amounts due under this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture or the Bonds (except for changes in the rate of tax on the overall net income of Purchaser); or

(B) shall impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, deposit insurance or similar requirement (including, without limitation, any such requirement imposed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System) against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, Purchaser or shall impose on Purchaser any other condition affecting payments under this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture or the Bonds or Purchaser's rights to receive such payment; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to Purchaser of making or maintaining the investment evidenced by the Bonds or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by Purchaser under this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture or under the Bonds by an amount deemed by Purchaser to be material, then, upon demand by Purchaser and receipt by CommerceRI and RIAC of a certificate from Purchaser setting forth its calculation of the amount owed, CommerceRI shall forthwith pay to Purchaser such additional amount or amounts as will compensate Purchaser for such increased costs or reduction in receipts.

(ii) If any change in, or the introduction, adoption, effectiveness, interpretation, reinterpretation or phase-in of, any law or regulation, directive, guideline, decision or request (whether or not having the force of law) of any court, central bank, regulator or other governmental authority affects or would affect the amount of capital required or expected to be maintained by Purchaser, or any person controlling Purchaser, and Purchaser determines (in its reasonable discretion) that the rate of return on its or such controlling person's capital as a consequence of Purchaser's ownership of the Bonds is reduced to a level below that which Purchaser or such controlling person could have achieved but for the occurrence of any such circumstance, then, in any such case upon notice from time to time by Purchaser to CommerceRI and RIAC, CommerceRI shall immediately pay directly to Purchaser additional amounts sufficient to compensate Purchaser or such controlling person for such reduction in rate of return.

(iii) A certificate of Purchaser claiming compensation under this Section 210(a) shall be conclusive and binding upon CommerceRI in the absence of manifest error. Such certificate shall set forth the nature of the occurrence giving rise to such compensation, the additional amount or amounts to be paid to Purchaser hereunder and the method by which such amounts were determined. In determining such amounts, Purchaser may use any reasonable averaging and attribution methods. Payment of all such amounts shall be made within fifteen (15) days of demand by Purchaser.

(iv) No failure on the part of Purchaser to demand compensation on any one occasion shall constitute a waiver of its right to demand such compensation on any other occasion and no failure on the part of Purchaser to deliver any certificate in a timely manner shall in any way reduce any obligation of CommerceRI to Purchaser under this Section 210(a); provided that CommerceRI shall not be required to compensate Purchaser or any participant pursuant to this Section 210(a) for any increased costs incurred or reductions suffered more than 180 days prior to the date that Purchaser or any participant, as the case may be, notifies CommerceRI and RIAC of the Regulatory Change giving rise to such increased costs or reductions, and Purchaser's or any participants' intention to claim compensation therefor (except that, if the Regulatory Change giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period retroactive to include the period of retroactive effect thereof). If Purchaser has granted a participation in the Bonds, the obligation of CommerceRI to Purchaser under this Section 210(a) will be computed as if such participation had not taken place, with Purchaser to be responsible for payments to the participants in accordance with the relevant participation agreements.
(v) The protection of this Section 210(a) shall be available to Purchaser regardless of any possible contention of invalidity or inapplicability of the law, regulation or condition which has been imposed; provided, however, that if it shall be later determined by Purchaser that any amount so paid by CommerceRl pursuant to this Section 210(a) is in excess of the amount payable under the provisions hereof, Purchaser shall refund such excess amount to CommerceRl. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture (a) all requests, rules, guidelines or directives in connection with the Dodd-Frank Act shall be deemed to be a Regulatory Change, regardless of the date enacted, adopted or issued, and (b) all requests, rules, guidelines or directives promulgated by Purchaser for International Settlements, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (or any successor or similar authority) or any Governmental Authority shall be deemed a Regulatory Change regardless of the date enacted, adopted or issued.

(vi) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser, CommerceRl and RIAC agree as follows:

(A) No compensation shall be due from RIAC or CommerceRl to Purchaser under paragraph (i) or paragraph (ii) above unless Purchaser is generally seeking similar compensation from other borrowers similarly situated and unless similarly situated borrowers have loan documentation containing provisions similar to those set forth in paragraphs (i) through (v) above.

(B) No compensation shall be due from RIAC or CommerceRl to Purchaser under paragraph (i) or paragraph (ii) above in connection with any claim of expense or loss of return relating to any period of time more than one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the date on which CommerceRl and RIAC receives written notice from Purchaser of the facts or circumstances giving rise to such claim for compensation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the "Regulatory Changes" to which Section 210(a)(i) applies will not be deemed to include any change the result of which is a Determination of Taxability.

The Bonds shall be issued pursuant to the Master Indenture and this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture and shall be equally and ratably secured under the Master Indenture and this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture with any other Series of Bonds issued pursuant to the Master Indenture, without preference, priority or distinction of any Bond over any other Series of Bonds, with respect to the Trust Estate, including (i) Net Revenues, (ii) moneys and investments in certain Funds and Accounts pledged under the Indenture, including the accounts established pursuant to Section 402 hereof, and (iii) CommerceRI's interest in the Loan Agreement, including the right to receive Loan Payments from RIAC.

Section 601. General Tax Covenant. CommerceRI and RIAC covenant to take all actions necessary to comply with the Tax Regulatory Agreement. Notwithstanding any provision in the Master Indenture or this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, CommerceRI and RIAC shall take all lawful action necessary under the Code to ensure that interest on the Bonds will remain exempt from federal income taxation to the extent provided in Section 103 of said Code and will refrain from taking any action which will cause interest on the Bonds to lose the benefit of the exclusion from gross income provided by Section 103(a) of the Code. Neither CommerceRI nor RIAC shall use or permit the use of any moneys held by CommerceRI, RIAC or the Trustee under this Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture in any manner which would result in the Bonds being classified as private activity bonds within the meaning of Section 141 of the Code or as arbitrage bonds within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code.

The provisions of this Section 601 shall be complied with by CommerceRI and RIAC in order to meet the requirements of the Code such that interest on the Bonds shall be and remain exempt from federal income taxes to the extent provided in Section 103 of the Code; provided, however, that CommerceRI and RIAC shall not be required to comply with any such provision with respect to the Bonds in the event CommerceRI and RIAC receive an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel that compliance with such provision is no longer required to satisfy the requirements of the Code or that compliance with some other provision in lieu of a provision specified in this Section 601 will satisfy said requirements, in which case compliance with such other provision specified in the opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel shall constitute compliance with the provisions specified in this Section 601. The Issuer shall adopt a Supplemental Indenture of Trust reflecting the deletion or substitution of any such provision of this Section 601 in the same manner as provided for Supplemental Indentures authorized in accordance with Section 1101 of the Master Indenture.

Principal of, Yield Maintenance Fee of, if any, and interest on this 2019 Series A Bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America by check or draft delivered or mailed or initiated by U.S. Bank National Association, as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), to the Registered Owner at its address as shown on the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent, on the applicable payment date (or in such other manner as the Registered Owner may designate in writing to CommerceRI, RIAC and the Paying Agent) and all without any presentment of the 2019 Series A Bonds by the Registered Owner.

This bond is one of a duly authorized issue of bonds of CommerceRI (herein called the "2019 Series A Bonds"), issued and to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $[ ] pursuant to (a) Chapter 64 of Title 42 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended (the "Act"), (b) a resolution of CommerceRI duly adopted on June 24, 2019, and (c) a resolution of RIAC duly adopted on June 13, 2019, and under and pursuant to a Master Indenture of Trust dated as of October 1, 1993, as supplemented and amended (as amended, the "Master Indenture"), by and among CommerceRI, RIAC, and U.S. Bank National Association, as successor to State Street Bank and Trust Company, as trustee (the "Trustee"), and a Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture of Trust dated July 12, 2019 (the "Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture" and together with the Master Indenture, collectively, the "Indenture"), by and among CommerceRI, RIAC and the Trustee. The proceeds of the 2019 Series A Bonds will be loaned by CommerceRI to RIAC pursuant to a Loan Agreement dated July 12, 2019 (the "2019 Series A/B Loan Agreement”), and will be used to refund, without available cash on hand, on a current basis the outstanding 2008 Series A Bonds, and to pay the costs of issuing the 2019 Series A Bonds.

This bond is a special and limited obligation of CommerceRI payable solely from and secured by a pledge of, equally and ratably with other Series of Bonds issued under the Master Indenture, the Trust Estate, including (i) Net Revenues, (ii) moneys and investments in certain Funds and Accounts pledged under the Indenture, including, the accounts established pursuant to Section 402 of the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, and (iii) CommerceRI's interest in the 2019 Series A/B Loan Agreement, including the right to receive Loan Payments from RIAC. Except as provided in the Indenture, the aggregate principal amount of Bonds which may be issued thereunder is not limited and all Bonds issued and to be issued under said Indenture are and will be equally secured by the pledge and covenants provided therein.

Copies of the Indenture are on file at the office of CommerceRI in the City of Providence, Rhode Island, and at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee and reference to the Indenture and any Supplements thereto and to the Act is made for a description of the pledge securing the 2019 Series A Bonds and covenants relating thereto, the manner of enforcement of the pledge, the rights and remedies of the Registered of the 2019 Series A Bonds with respect thereto, the terms and conditions upon which the 2019 Series A Bonds are issued and under which Additional Bonds may be issued thereunder in the future, the conditions upon which the Indenture may be amended with or without the consent of the Holders, and the terms upon which 2019 Series A Bonds may no longer be secured by the Indenture.

The Registered Owner of this bond shall have no right to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein to take any action with respect to an Event of Default under the Indenture or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture.

In case any Event of Default (as defined in the Indenture) occurs and is continuing, the principal amount of this bond together with accrued interest may be declared due and payable in the manner and with the effect provided in the Indenture. After the occurrence and during the continuance of any such Event of Default, this bond will, at the option of the Registered Owner, bear interest at the Default Rate as set forth in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained herein to the contrary, RIAC shall remain liable to the Registered Owner for any additional interest, fees costs and expenses owed to the Registered Owner pursuant to the terms of this bond, the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture or the Bond Purchase Agreement.

This 2019 Series A Bond may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time, at the option of RIAC, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Registered Owner in such inverse order of principal installments at the following prepayment prices expressed as percentages of the principal amount prepaid (“Prepayment Premium”), plus accrued interest to the prepayment date:

July 12, 2019 through July 11, 2021, inclusive 110%
July 12, 2021 through July 11, 2023, inclusive 108
July 12, 2023 through July 11, 2025, inclusive 107
July 12, 2025 through July 11, 2026, inclusive 105
July 12, 2026 through July 11, 2027, inclusive 103
July 12, 2027 through July 11, 2028, inclusive 102
July 12, 2028 through July 11, 2029, inclusive 101
July 12, 2029 and thereafter 100

Notice of prepayment having been given as required by the Agreement and sufficient moneys having been deposited with the Registered Owner, interest on the principal to be prepaid shall cease to accrue on the date fixed for prepayment. By accepting this bond, the Registered Owner agrees, upon any partial prepayment, to complete the Notation of Prepayment of Principal hereon. In the event of the prepayment of less than all of the outstanding principal of this bond, the prepayment shall be applied as directed by the Borrower.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Prepayment Premium shall be due on any amount prepaid: (i) through a refinancing by the Registered Owner; or (ii) within thirty (30) days of the Maturity Date (provided the same has not been accelerated).

If the interest on this 2019 Series A Bond during any period is includable for federal income tax purposes in the gross income of the owner hereof, this 2019 Series A Bond shall bear interest for such period (other than for a period for which the collection of the applicable federal income tax is barred) and thereafter at the Taxable Rate (as defined in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture). Once a Determination of Taxability has been made and delivered in writing to the Registered Owner, the Registered Owner shall promptly give written notice of such determination and the date on which the Taxable Rate commenced (the "Taxability Date") to CommerceRI and RIAC, and shall make a notation of the change of interest rate hereon. This 2019 Series A Bond shall bear interest at the Taxable Rate from and after the Taxability Date until the final payment of this 2019 Series A Bond, regardless of whether such payment occurs before or after a Determination of Taxability is made. Reference is hereby made to the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture for further provisions relating to the payment of interest at the Taxable Rate. For purposes hereof, a "Determination of Taxability" means the first to occur of: (i) receipt by the CommerceRI or the Registered Owner of a written opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series A Bonds is not exempt from gross income for federal tax purposes (or to the effect that such bond counsel cannot conclude that such interest is so exempt), unless within sixty (60) days of such receipt RIAC delivers to the Registered Owner a written opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series A Bond is so exempt or (ii) notification by the Internal Revenue Service (either by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or by any district director of the Internal Revenue Service) or a court of competent jurisdiction as a result of proceedings in which RIAC has participated or has been given notice and opportunity to participate at its expense, either directly or through the Registered Owner, and from which proceedings for appellate review have been concluded or the period for applying for appellate review has expired, to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series A Bond is not exempt from gross income for federal tax purposes.
This bond is transferable, as provided in the Indenture, only upon the books of CommerceRl held by the Registrar by the Registered Owner hereof in person or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, upon surrender hereof together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Registered Owner or his duly authorized attorney, and thereupon CommerceRl shall issue in the name of the transferee a new registered 2019 Series A Bond or Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount, interest rate and maturity as the surrendered 2019 Series A Bond, as provided in the Indenture, and upon the payment of the charges therein prescribed. This Bond may also be exchanged, alone or with other 2019 Series A Bonds of the same series, interest rate and maturity, at the office of the Trustee in Boston, Massachusetts, for a new 2019 Series A Bond or Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount, interest rate and maturity, without transfer to a new registered owner, as provided in the Indenture and upon the payment of the charges therein prescribed. CommerceRl shall not be obligated to make any transfer or exchange of this bond between a record date and an Interest Payment Date.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or Prepayment Premium of or the interest on the 2019 Series A Bonds or for any claim based thereon or on the Indenture against any member, officer or employee of CommerceRl or any person executing the 2019 Series A Bonds.

The Act provides that the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations has pledged and agreed that it will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in CommerceRl until all bonds issued by CommerceRl are fully met and discharged or adequate provision has been made by law for the protection of the Registered of such bonds or obligations.

It is hereby certified and recited that all conditions, acts and things required by the Constitution or statutes of the State or the Indenture to exist, to have happened or to have been performed precedent to or in the issuance of this bond, exist, have happened and have been performed and that the issue of this bond, together with all other indebtedness of CommerceRl, is within every debt and other limit prescribed by law.

This bond shall not be entitled to any security, right or benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless the Certificate of Authentication hereon has been duly executed by the Authenticating Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation has caused this bond to be executed in its name by the manual or facsimile signature of an Authorized Officer of CommerceRl and its corporate seal (or a facsimile thereof) to be affixed, imprinted, engraved or otherwise reproduced hereon and countersigned by the manual or facsimile signature of an Authorized Officer of CommerceRl.

We have acted as bond counsel in connection with the issuance by the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation, formerly known as the Rhode Island Economic Development Corporation (the "Issuer"), a public corporation and instrumentality and agency of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations (the "State"), duly organized and existing under the laws of the State pursuant to Chapter 64 of Title 42 of the General Laws of Rhode Island (1956), as amended (the "Act"), of its $[ ] Airport Revenue Refunding Bonds, 2019 Series A (AMT) (the "Bonds"). We have examined the law and such certified proceedings and other papers as we have deemed necessary to render this opinion.

The Bonds are issued pursuant to the Act, resolutions of the Issuer adopted on June 24, 2019 and of the Rhode Island Airport Corporation (the "Borrower") adopted on June 13, 2019 (collectively, the "Bond Resolutions") and a Master Indenture of Trust dated as of October 1, 1993 (the "Master Indenture"), as supplemented and amended, including by an Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture of Trust dated July 12, 2019 (the "Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture" and together with the Master Indenture, as amended, collectively, the "Indenture"), each by and among the Issuer, the Borrower and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined are used herein with the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture. The proceeds of the Bonds will be loaned by the Issuer to the Borrower for the purpose of financing the Project, all on the terms and conditions set forth in a Loan Agreement dated the date hereof (the "Loan Agreement") by and between the Issuer and the Borrower. Under the Loan Agreement, the Borrower has agreed to make payments to be used to pay when due the principal amount of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

As to questions of fact material to our opinion, we have relied upon representations of the Issuer contained in the Indenture, the certified proceedings and other certifications of public officials.
furnished to us, and certifications furnished to us by or on behalf of the Issuer, without undertaking to verify the same by independent investigation.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of opinion that, under existing law:

1. The Issuer has been duly organized and is validly existing as a body politic and corporate and public instrumentality of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations and has the full power and authority to enter into and perform the obligations under the Loan Agreement and Indenture and to issue the Bonds.

2. The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer in accordance with and as permitted by the Master Indenture and is a valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer. The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture creates a valid lien on the Trust Estate created under the Indenture consisting of: (i) the Net Revenues, (ii) certain Funds and Accounts pledged under the Master Indenture, and (iii) the Issuer's right, title and interest in the Loan Agreement and any and all other revenues and property specifically pledged as additional security for the Bonds, all on a parity with other bonds issued or to be issued under the Master Indenture.

3. The Bonds have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer and are valid and binding special and limited obligations of the Issuer payable as described in the Indenture and Loan Agreement.

4. Interest on the Bonds is excluded from gross income of the owners of the Bonds for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), except that no opinion is expressed as to such exclusion of interest on any Bond for any period during which the Bond is held by a person who, within the meaning of Section 147(a) of the Code is a "substantial user" of the facilities refinanced with the proceeds of the Bonds or a "related person." In addition, interest on the Bonds is treated as a preference item in calculating the alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations under the Code. In rendering the opinions set forth in this paragraph, we have assumed compliance by the Issuer with all requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") that must be satisfied subsequent to the issuance of the Bonds in order that interest thereon be, and continue to be, excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Issuer and the Borrower have covenanted in the Indenture and Loan Agreement to comply with all such requirements. Failure by the Issuer or the Borrower to comply with certain of such requirements may cause interest on the Bonds to become included in gross income for federal income tax purposes retroactive to the date of issuance of the Bonds. We express no opinion regarding any other federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds.

5. Interest on the Bonds and any profit made on the sale thereof are exempt from taxation by and within the State; although the Bonds, their transfer and the income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, may be included in the measure of State estate taxes and certain State corporate and business taxes. We express no opinion regarding any other Rhode Island tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds or any tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds under the laws of any state other than Rhode Island.

This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof, and we neither assume nor undertake any obligation to update, revise, supplement or restate this opinion to reflect any action taken or omitted, or any facts or circumstances or changes in law or in the interpretation thereof, that may hereafter arise or occur, or for any other reason.

It is to be understood that the rights of the holders of the Bonds and the enforceability of the Bonds and the Indenture may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting creditors' rights heretofore or hereafter enacted to the extent constitutionally applicable and that their enforcement may also be subject to the exercise of judicial discretion in appropriate cases.

This opinion is provided solely for your benefit in connection with the issuance of the Bonds. It is not intended to be relied upon by any individual or entity other than you or to be copied, quoted, distributed or disclosed to any other person or used for any other purpose except with our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

Principal of, Yield Maintenance Fee of, if any, and interest on this 2019 Series B Bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America by check or draft delivered or mailed or initiated by U.S. Bank National Association, as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), to the Registered Owner at its address as shown on the registration books maintained by the Paying Agent, on the applicable payment date (or in such other manner as the Registered Owner may designate in writing to CommerceRl, RIAC and the Paying Agent) and all without any presentation of the 2019 Series B Bonds by the Registered Owner.

This bond is one of a duly authorized issue of bonds of CommerceRl (herein called the "2019 Series B Bonds"), issued and to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of $[ ] pursuant to (a) Chapter 64 of Title 42 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended (the "Act"), (b) a resolution of CommerceRl duly adopted on June 24, 2019, and (c) a resolution of RIAC duly adopted on June 13, 2019, and under and pursuant to a Master Indenture of Trust dated as of October 1, 1993, as supplemented and amended (as amended, the "Master Indenture"), by and among CommerceRl, RIAC, and U.S. Bank National Association, as successor to State Street Bank and Trust Company, as trustee (the "Trustee"), and a Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture of Trust dated July 12, 2019 (the "Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture" and together with the Master Indenture, collectively, the "Indenture"), by and among CommerceRl, RIAC and the Trustee. The proceeds of the 2019 Series B Bonds will be loaned by CommerceRl to RIAC pursuant to a Loan Agreement dated July 12, 2019 (the "2019 Series A/B Loan Agreement"), and will be used to refund on a current basis the outstanding 2008 Series B Bonds, and to pay the costs of issuing the 2019 Series B Bonds.

This bond is a special and limited obligation of CommerceRI payable solely from and secured by a pledge of, equally and ratably with other Series of Bonds issued under the Master Indenture, the Trust Estate, including (i) Net Revenues, (ii) moneys and investments in certain Funds and Accounts pledged under the Indenture, including, the accounts established pursuant to Section 402 of the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, and (iii) CommerceRI's interest in the 2019 Series A/B Loan Agreement, including the right to receive Loan Payments from RIAC. Except as provided in the Indenture, the aggregate principal amount of Bonds which may be issued thereunder is not limited and all Bonds issued and to be issued under said Indenture are and will be equally secured by the pledge and covenants provided therein.

Copies of the Indenture are on file at the office of CommerceRI in the City of Providence, Rhode Island, and at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee and reference to the Indenture and any Supplements thereto and to the Act is made for a description of the pledge securing the 2019 Series B Bonds and covenants relating thereto, the manner of enforcement of the pledge, the rights and remedies of the Registered of the 2019 Series B Bonds with respect thereto, the terms and conditions upon which the 2019 Series B Bonds are issued and under which Additional Bonds may be issued thereunder in the future, the conditions upon which the Indenture may be amended with or without the consent of the Holders, and the terms upon which 2019 Series B Bonds may no longer be secured by the Indenture.

The Registered Owner of this bond shall have no right to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein to take any action with respect to an Event of Default under the Indenture or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture.

In case any Event of Default (as defined in the Indenture) occurs and is continuing, the principal amount of the this bond together with accrued interest may be declared due and payable in the manner and with the effect provided in the Indenture. After the occurrence and during the continuance of any such Event of Default, this bond will, at the option of the Registered Owner, bear interest at the Default Rate as set forth in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained herein to the contrary, RIAC shall remain liable to the Registered Owner for any additional interest, fees costs and expenses owed to the Registered Owner pursuant to the terms of this bond, the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture or the Bond Purchase Agreement.

This 2019 Series B Bond may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time, at the option of RIAC, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Registered Owner in such inverse order of principal installments at the following prepayment prices expressed as percentages of the principal amount prepaid ("Prepayment Premium"), plus accrued interest to the prepayment date:

July 12, 2019 through July 11, 2021, inclusive 110%
Notice of prepayment having been given as required by the Agreement and sufficient moneys having been deposited with the Registered Owner, interest on the principal to be prepaid shall cease to accrue on the date fixed for prepayment. By accepting this bond, the Registered Owner agrees, upon any partial prepayment, to complete the Notation of Prepayment of Principal hereon. In the event of the prepayment of less than all of the outstanding principal of this bond, the prepayment shall be applied as directed by the Borrower.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Prepayment Premium shall be due on any amount prepaid: (i) through a refinancing by the Registered Owner; or (ii) within thirty (30) days of the Maturity Date (provided the same has not been accelerated).

If the interest on this 2019 Series B Bond during any period is includable for federal income tax purposes in the gross income of the owner hereof, this 2019 Series B Bond shall bear interest for such period (other than for a period for which the collection of the applicable federal income tax is barred) and thereafter at the Taxable Rate (as defined in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture). Once a Determination of Taxability has been made and delivered in writing to the Registered Owner, the Registered Owner shall promptly give written notice of such determination and the date on which the Taxable Rate commenced (the "Taxability Date") to CommerceRI and RIAC, and shall make a notation of the change of interest rate hereon. This 2019 Series B Bond shall bear interest at the Taxable Rate from and after the Taxability Date until the final payment of this 2019 Series B Bond, regardless of whether such payment occurs before or after a Determination of Taxability is made. Reference is hereby made to the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture for further provisions relating to the payment of interest at the Taxable Rate. For purposes hereof, a "Determination of Taxability" means the first to occur of: (i) receipt by the CommerceRI or the Registered Owner of a written opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series B Bonds is not exempt from gross income for federal tax purposes (or to the effect that such bond counsel cannot conclude that such interest is so exempt), unless within sixty (60) days of such receipt RIAC delivers to the Registered Owner a written opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series B Bond is so exempt or (ii) notification by the Internal Revenue Service (either by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or by any district director of the Internal Revenue Service) or a court of competent jurisdiction as a result of proceedings in which RIAC has participated or has been given notice and opportunity to participate at its expense, either directly or through the Registered Owner, and from which proceedings for appellate review have been concluded or the period for applying for appellate review has expired, to the effect that the interest on the 2019 Series B Bond is not exempt from gross income for federal tax purposes.
This bond is transferable, as provided in the Indenture, only upon the books of CommerceRl held by the Registrar by the Registered Owner hereof in person or by his attorney duly authorized in writing, upon surrender hereof together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the Registered Owner or his duly authorized attorney, and thereupon CommerceRl shall issue in the name of the transferee a new registered 2019 Series B Bond or Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount, interest rate and maturity as the surrendered 2019 Series B Bond, as provided in the Indenture, and upon the payment of the charges therein prescribed. This Bond may also be exchanged, alone or with other 2019 Series B Bonds of the same series, interest rate and maturity, at the office of the Trustee in Boston, Massachusetts, for a new 2019 Series B Bond or Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount, interest rate and maturity, without transfer to a new registered owner, as provided in the Indenture and upon the payment of the charges therein prescribed. CommerceRl shall not be obligated to make any transfer or exchange of this bond between a record date and an Interest Payment Date.

No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal or Prepayment Premium of or the interest on the 2019 Series B Bonds or for any claim based thereon or on the Indenture against any member, officer or employee of CommerceRl or any person executing the 2019 Series B Bonds.

The Act provides that the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations has pledged and agreed that it will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in CommerceRl until all bonds issued by CommerceRl are fully met and discharged or adequate provision has been made by law for the protection of the Registered of such bonds or obligations.

It is hereby certified and recited that all conditions, acts and things required by the Constitution or statutes of the State or the Indenture to exist, to have happened or to have been performed precedent to or in the issuance of this bond, exist, have happened and have been performed and that the issue of this bond, together with all other indebtedness of CommerceRl, is within every debt and other limit prescribed by law.

This bond shall not be entitled to any security, right or benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose, unless the Certificate of Authentication hereon has been duly executed by the Authenticating Agent.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation has caused this bond to be executed in its name by the manual or facsimile signature of an Authorized Officer of CommerceRl and its corporate seal (or a facsimile thereof) to be affixed, imprinted, engraved or otherwise reproduced hereon and countersigned by the manual or facsimile signature of an Authorized Officer of CommerceRl.

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation
Airport Revenue Refunding Bonds, 2016 Series B (Non AMT)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as bond counsel in connection with the issuance by the Rhode Island Commerce Corporation, formerly known as the Rhode Island Economic Development Corporation (the "Issuer"), a public corporation and instrumentality and agency of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations (the "State"), duly organized and existing under the laws of the State pursuant to Chapter 64 of Title 42 of the General Laws of Rhode Island (1956), as amended (the "Act"), of its [$              ] Airport Revenue Refunding Bonds, 2019 Series B (Non AMT) (the "Bonds"). We have examined the law and such certified proceedings and other papers as we have deemed necessary to render this opinion.

The Bonds are issued pursuant to the Act, resolutions of the Issuer adopted on June 24, 2019 and of the Rhode Island Airport Corporation (the "Borrower") adopted on June 13, 2019 (collectively, the "Bond Resolutions") and a Master Indenture of Trust dated as of October 1, 1993 (the "Master Indenture"), as supplemented and amended, including by a Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture of Trust dated July 12, 2019 (the "Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture" and together with the Master Indenture, as amended, collectively, the "Indenture"), each by and among the Issuer, the Borrower and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined are used herein with the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture. The proceeds of the Bonds will be loaned by the Issuer to the Borrower for the purpose of financing the Project, all on the terms and conditions set forth in the Loan Agreement dated the date hereof (the "Loan Agreement") by and between the Issuer and the Borrower. Under the Loan Agreement, the Borrower has agreed to make payments to be used to pay when due the principal amount of, prepayment premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.
As to questions of fact material to our opinion, we have relied upon representations of the Issuer contained in the Indenture, the certified proceedings and other certifications of public officials furnished to us, and certifications furnished to us by or on behalf of the Issuer, without undertaking to verify the same by independent investigation.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of opinion that, under existing law:

1. The Issuer has been duly organized and is validly existing as a body politic and corporate and public instrumentality of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations and has the full power and authority to enter into and perform the obligations under the Loan Agreement and the Indenture and to issue the Bonds.

2. The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer in accordance with and as permitted by the Master Indenture and is a valid and binding obligation of the Issuer enforceable against the Issuer. The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture creates a valid lien on the Trust Estate created under the Indenture consisting of: (i) the Net Revenues, (ii) certain Funds and Accounts pledged under the Master Indenture, and (iii) the Issuer's right, title and interest in the Loan Agreement and any and all other revenues and property specifically pledged as additional security for the Bonds, all on a parity with other bonds issued or to be issued under the Master Indenture.

3. The Bonds have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer and are valid and binding special and limited obligations of the Issuer payable as described in the Indenture and Loan Agreement.

4. Interest on the Bonds is excluded from gross income of the owners of the Bonds for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). In addition, interest on the Bonds is treated as a preference item in calculating the alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations under the Code. In rendering the opinions set forth in this paragraph, we have assumed compliance by the Issuer with all requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") that must be satisfied subsequent to the issuance of the Bonds in order that interest thereon be, and continue to be, excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Issuer and the Borrower have covenanted in the Indenture and Loan Agreement to comply with all such requirements. Failure by the Issuer or the Borrower to comply with certain of such requirements may cause interest on the Bonds to become included in gross income for federal income tax purposes retroactive to the date of issuance of the Bonds. We express no opinion regarding any other federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds.

5. Interest on the Bonds and any profit made on the sale thereof are exempt from taxation by and within the State; although the Bonds, their transfer and the income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, may be included in the measure of State estate taxes and certain State corporate and business taxes. We express no opinion regarding any other Rhode Island tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds or any tax consequences arising with respect to the Bonds under the laws of any state other than Rhode Island.

This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof, and we neither assume nor undertake any obligation to update, revise, supplement or restate this opinion to reflect any action taken or omitted, or any facts or circumstances or changes in law or in the interpretation thereof, that may hereafter arise or occur, or for any other reason.

It is to be understood that the rights of the holders of the Bonds and the enforceability of the Bonds and the Indenture may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting creditors' rights heretofore or hereafter enacted to the extent constitutionally applicable and that their enforcement may also be subject to the exercise of judicial discretion in appropriate cases.

This opinion is provided solely for your benefit in connection with the issuance of the Bonds. 10.01 The Bank shall have the right to grant participations (to be evidenced by one or more participation agreements or certificates of participation) in this Agreement and the Bonds at any time and from time to time to one or more other banking institutions, without the consent of the Issuer or the Borrower (provided that the Bank agrees to use its best efforts to provide written notice to the Issuer and the Borrower of a participation by the Bank, but failure to provide such notice shall in no way limit the effectiveness of such participation or the obligations of the Issuer and the Borrower to the Bank under this Agreement) and such participants shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement, including, and the Related Documents, to the same extent as if they were a direct party hereto; provided, however, that no such participant shall be entitled to receive payment hereunder of any amount greater than the amount which would have been payable had the Bank not granted a participation to such participant; and provided, further, however, that (i) the Issuer and the Borrower shall be entitled to deal solely with the Bank; and (ii) the grant of any such participation shall not terminate or otherwise affect or relieve any obligation of the Bank hereunder.

10.02 The representations, warranties, and covenants of the parties hereto shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of (i) any investigation made by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Borrower, and the Bank and (ii) delivery and acceptance of, and payment for, the Bonds.

10.03 The provisions of this Agreement are not in derogation or limitation of any obligations, liabilities or duties of the Borrower under any of the other Related Documents or any other agreement with or for the benefit of the Bank in any capacity. No covenant, agreement or obligation of the Borrower contained herein, nor any right or remedy of the Bank contained herein, shall in any respect be limited by or be deemed in limitation of any inconsistent or additional provisions contained in any of the other Related Documents or in any such other agreement.

10.04 The agreements herein set forth have been and are made solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns and as to the representations of the Bank in Section VI and the indemnification in Section IX, the Bank's directors, officers, employees, and agents. No other person shall acquire or have any right under or by virtue of this Agreement. 10.05 The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Rhode Island.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed by the parties hereto as of the ___ day of July, 2019.
