Rhode Island Commerce Corporation
Qualified Jobs Incentive Tax Credits – Economic Impact Analysis
Aretec, Inc. Application

Introduction

The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) may issue Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits to Aretec, Inc. (“the Company”), a Fairfax, Virginia-based software and data science consulting firm that serves both federal government and commercial clients. The credits would be issued in connection with the Company’s decision to open a new office in Rhode Island, to be located in the Cambridge Innovation Center’s new facility on Dyer Street in Providence. The new office would open in 2021; it would initially employ 20 people full-time, rising to 40 in 2022.

The Company is expected to request Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits with an estimated value of approximately $800,000.

This analysis was prepared by Applesseed, a consulting firm with more than twenty years of experience in economic impact analysis.

Jobs Analysis

Annual operations

As noted above, the Company plans to have 20 qualifying employees working in its new Providence office facility in 2021, rising to 40 in 2022. Table 1 summarizes the categories in which these jobs will be created (as of 2022), and median earnings for each category.

Table 1: Projected employment, 2022

Job category	New positions (as of 2022)	Median salary
Business operations	23	$68,700
Data analytics	15	$78,000
Graphics design	1	$58,700
Office support	1	$69,600
Total	40	$68,700

Based on data provided by the Company, and using the IMPLAN input-output modeling system, Applesseed estimates that when the new office is fully staffed, ongoing operations associated with the 40 full-time jobs the Company would be committed to adding and maintaining will directly and indirectly support:

- 61 jobs in Rhode Island;
- Nearly $4.52 million in annual earnings (in 2022 dollars);
- $10.16 million in statewide economic output; and
- An increase of $6.35 million in Rhode Island’s annual GDP.

These impacts are summarized below in Table 2. The direct impact of the Company’s operations reflects the Company’s direct employment, its direct spending on wages and salaries, the value its operations add to Rhode Island’s GDP, and the total value of the goods and services it produces. Its indirect impact is the effect of the Company’s spending on purchases of goods and services from other in-state businesses on employment, earnings, value-added and output in Rhode Island.

Table 2: Direct, indirect and total annual impact of ongoing operations (income, value-added and output in millions of 2022 dollars)

	Jobs	Earnings	Value added	Output
Direct	40	$3.34	$4.48	$7.29
Indirect	21	1.18	1.87	2.87
Total	61	$4.52	$6.35	$10.16

In addition to the impacts on employment, earnings, output and state GDP cited above, expansion of the Company's operations in Rhode Island would generate a projected increase of approximately $265,000 in annual state tax revenues, including:

- $169,000 in state personal income taxes paid by workers newly employed by the Company in its new operations in Rhode Island, or by Rhode Island workers whose jobs are indirectly attributable to the Company's new facility;
- $74,000 in state sales taxes paid on those workers' taxable household spending; and
- $22,000 in state business taxes.

Hiring

The Company recruits its employees from a variety of sources, including national recruiting firms, local and regional employment agencies, universities, community colleges and the professional networks of its employees.

Benefits

Benefits available to the Company's employees will include:

- Medical coverage through United Healthcare for employees and their dependents (including adult children up to age 26) with 50 percent paid by the Company
- Dental and vision benefits through United Humana
- Flexible health pending and day care pending account
- Basic life, accidental death and dismemberment and disability insurance
- A 401k retirement plan administered by John Hancock

Impact

The state fiscal impact of the requested tax credits is estimated to be approximately $800,000 in foregone state revenue. Direct and indirect economic and fiscal benefits of the proposed project include the estimated increase in annual state GDP of $6.35 million in 2022, the estimated associated job creation, and a gross increase of approximately $3.059 million in personal income, sales and business tax revenues during the twelve-year commitment period beginning in 2021. These benefits are detailed in the foregoing analysis.

In addition to the economic and tax revenue impacts cited above, the Company's new Providence office would benefit Rhode Island in other ways, including:

- Highlighting the state's attractiveness as a location for firms in the rapidly-growing field of data science and software
- Contributing to the ongoing development of the Providence Innovation and Design District
- Increasing local personal property tax revenues

Beyond the fiscal impact noted above, there is no anticipated financial exposure to the state. Various features of the Qualified Jobs Incentive program mitigate risk to the state; and the value of Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits would be determined on the basis of the number of people actually employed and the wages actually paid by the Company.

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation
Qualified Jobs Incentive Tax Credits – Economic Impact Analysis
Boston Energy Ltd. Application

Introduction

The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) may issue Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits to Boston Energy Ltd. (“the Company”), a U.K.-based firm that provides turbine assembly, maintenance and repair services to customers in the wind power industry. The credits would be issued in connection with the Company’s decision to open a new office in Providence. The new office would open in 2021. It would initially employ 21 people full-time, rising to 43 in 2022 and 52 in 2023.

The Company is expected to request Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits with an estimated value of approximately $866,250.

This analysis was prepared by Appleseed, a consulting firm with more than twenty years of experience in economic impact analysis.

Jobs Analysis

Annual operations

As noted above, the Company plans to have 21 qualifying employees working in its new Providence office in 2021, rising to 43 in 2022 and 52 in 2023. Table 1 summarizes the categories in which these jobs will be created (as of 2023), and median earnings for each category.

Table 1: Projected employment, 2023

Job category	New positions (as of 2023)	Median salary
Wind turbine technician	50	$65,000
Account manager	1	$50,000
Country manager	1	$100,000
Total	52	$65,000

While all of these employees would be based in Rhode Island, some of their work would be performed at client sites in other states.

Based on data provided by the Company, and using the IMPLAN input-output modeling system, Appleseed estimates that when the new office is fully staffed, ongoing operations associated with the 52 full-time jobs the Company would be committed to adding and maintaining will directly and indirectly support:

- 60 jobs in Rhode Island;
- $4.9 million in annual earnings (in 2023 dollars);
- Nearly $11.2 million in statewide economic output; and
- An increase of more than $7.7 million in Rhode Island’s annual GDP.

These impacts are summarized below in Table 2. The direct impact of the Company’s operations reflects the Company’s direct employment, its direct spending on wages and salaries, the value its operations add to Rhode Island’s GDP, and the total value of the goods and services it produces. Its indirect impact is the effect of the Company’s spending on purchases of goods and services from other in-state businesses on employment, earnings, value-added and output in Rhode Island.

Table 2: Direct, indirect and total annual impact of ongoing operations (income, value-added and output in millions of 2023 dollars)

	Jobs	Earnings	Value added	Output
Direct	52	$4.38	$6.82	$9.73
Indirect	8	0.52	0.90	1.44
Total	60	$4.90	$7.72	$11.17

In addition to the impacts on employment, earnings, output and state GDP cited above, the Company's new operations in Rhode Island would generate a projected increase of approximately $287,000 in annual state tax revenues, including:

- $184,000 in state personal income taxes paid by workers newly employed by the Company in its new operations in Rhode Island, or by Rhode Island workers whose jobs are indirectly attributable to the Company's new facility;
- $80,000 in state sales taxes paid on those workers' taxable household spending; and
- $23,000 in state business taxes.

Hiring

Sources from which the Company recruits its employees from complementary industries, the mechanical and electrical trades, skilled maintenance workers and veterans. All new staff undergo additional technical and safety training through programs certified by the Global Wind Organization.

Benefits

The Company will offer health care coverage, paid vacation and holidays and other benefits to its employees.

Impact

The state fiscal impact of the requested tax credits is estimated to be approximately $866,250 in foregone state revenue. Direct and indirect economic and fiscal benefits of the proposed project include the estimated increase in annual state GDP of $7.72 million in 2023, the estimated associated job creation, and a gross increase of approximately $3.223 million in personal income, sales and business tax revenues during the twelve-year commitment period beginning in 2021. These benefits are detailed in the foregoing analysis.

In addition to the economic and tax revenue impacts cited above, the Company's new Providence office would benefit Rhode Island in other ways, including:

- Highlighting the state's attractiveness as location for the U.S. operations of international firms
- Reinforcing the state's position as a leading location for firms in the rapidly-growing wind power industry
- Contributing to the development of a trained and experienced wind energy workforce in Rhode Island.

Beyond the fiscal impact noted above, there is no anticipated financial exposure to the state. Various features of the Qualified Jobs Incentive program mitigate risk to the state; and the value of Qualified Jobs Incentive tax credits would be determined on the basis of the number of people actually employed and the wages actually paid by the Company.

Rhode Island Commerce Corporation
Rebuild Rhode Island Tax Credits – Economic Impact Analysis

Pawtucket Development Group, LLC Application

Introduction

The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (the “Corporation”) may issue Rebuild Rhode Island tax credits to Pawtucket Development Group, LLC (the “Sponsor”). The credits would be issued in connection with the Sponsor’s investment in the redevelopment of a complex of historic mill buildings located at 825 Main Street in the Town of West Warwick. The project would result in the creation of 65 new residential rental units. The Sponsor estimates the total cost of the project to be approximately $18.8 million.

The Sponsor is requesting a Rebuild Rhode Island Tax Credit with a net value of $2,298,151 and an exemption from sales taxes on eligible construction materials and furnishings, valued by the sponsor at $230,691.

This analysis was prepared by Applesseed, a consulting firm with more than twenty years’ experience in economic impact analysis.

Jobs Analysis

Construction

As shown in Table 1, the Sponsor’s estimate of total project cost is approximately $18.8 million. After excluding certain costs that do not have a direct, current impact on Rhode Island’s economy (such as land and building acquisition, reserves and interest costs), Applesseed estimates that hard construction costs and soft costs will total approximately $15.4 million.

Table 1: Estimated total project cost (in $ millions)

Component	Estimated cost
Land and building acquisition	$0.7
Building construction (hard cost)	$12.1
Soft costs	$6.0
Total	$18.8

Applesseed estimates that direct spending of $15.4 million will directly and indirectly generate:

- 116 person-years<sup>1</sup> of work in Rhode Island;
- Approximately $6.4 million in earnings;
- Approximately $21.1 million in State-wide economic output<sup>2</sup>; and
- A one-time increase of $10.7 million in Rhode Island’s GDP.

These impacts are summarized below in Table 2. The project’s direct impact is the impact of the company’s direct spending on design and construction. Its indirect impact is the effect of spending by contractors for goods and services (insurance, construction materials, etc.) purchased from other Rhode Island businesses.

In addition to the impacts on employment, earnings, output and state GDP cited above, a direct expenditure of $15.4 million would generate a projected one-time increase of approximately $375,000 in taxes paid to the State during construction, including:

- $240,000 in state personal income taxes paid by Rhode Island workers employed on the project, or whose jobs are indirectly attributable to the project;
- $105,000 in state sales taxes paid on those workers’ taxable household spending;
- $30,000 in state business corporation taxes.

<sup>1</sup> A person-year is equivalent to the time worked by one person who is employed full-time for a year. It could for example represent the work of two people who are each employed full-time for six months; or the work of one person who is employed half-time for two years.

<sup>2</sup> Output is a measure of the total sales by Rhode Island companies (including the “sale” of labor by Rhode Island households) generated by the project.

Table 2: Direct and indirect impact of construction and related spending (employment in person-years; income, value-added and output in millions of 2019 dollars)

	Employment	Earnings	Value added	Output
Direct Effect	71	$4.3	$7.2	$15.4
Indirect Effect	45	$2.1	$3.5	$5.7
Total Effect	116	$6.4	$10.7	$21.1

Most of the activity reflected in Table 1 will occur during the construction period, expected to be completed in late 2019 or early 2020. The anticipated wage rates for construction jobs are shown below in Table 3. Anticipated wage rates are the median hourly wage for these occupations in Rhode Island.

Table 3: Anticipated wages during construction

Occupation	RI median hourly wage <sup>3</sup>
Architect	$37.59
Construction manager	$54.74
Carpenter	$22.68
Electrician	$28.40
Plumber	$24.62
Painter	$19.92
Laborer	$21.25

Fringe benefits associated with these jobs are expected to be in accordance with industry norms, with the cost of such benefits generally ranging between 22 and 28 percent of wages. Workers who fill these jobs are expected to be drawn primarily from the Providence-Warwick RI-MA New England City and Town Area (NECTA).

Annual operations

The Sponsor estimates that when the project is completed, 3 to 4 workers will be employed (on an FTE basis) to manage and maintain the residential units, and that the project's stabilized-year operating and administrative expenses will total approximately $459,000.

Based on these estimates, Appleseed projects (as shown below in Table 4), that when the project is completed and fully occupied (which is assumed to occur in 2019), it will directly and indirectly account for:

- 8 full-time equivalent jobs in Rhode Island;
- $359,000 in annual earnings (in 2019 dollars);
- More than $578,000 in annual statewide economic output; and
- An increase approximately $460,000 in Rhode Island's annual GDP.

In addition to the impacts on employment, earnings, output and state GDP cited in Table 4, ongoing operations and maintenance would generate a projected gross increase of approximately $21,000 in taxes paid annually to the State (in addition to the $382,000 in state tax revenues cited above that would be generated by spending on construction), including:

- $13,000 in state personal income taxes paid by Rhode Island workers employed in the operation and management of project, or whose jobs are indirectly attributable to the project;
- $6,000 in state sales taxes paid on those workers' taxable household spending; and
- $2,000 in state business corporation taxes.

Table 4: Direct<sup>4</sup> and indirect impact of annual residential building operations (employment in FTE; income, value-added and output in thousands of 2019 dollars)

	Employment	Earnings	Value added	Output
Direct Effect	7	$318	$385	$450
Indirect Effect	1	$41	$75	$128
Total Effect	8	$359	$460	$578

The workers employed directly in management and maintenance of the residential building will most likely be drawn from neighborhoods within the Town of West Warwick and from other nearby communities.

Impact

The state fiscal impact of the requested tax credits and state sales and use tax exemption is up to $2.529 million in foregone state revenue. Direct and indirect economic and fiscal benefits of the proposed project include the estimated increase of $460,000 in annual state GDP, the associated job creation, and a gross increase of approximately $684,000 in personal income, sales and business corporation tax revenues directly and indirectly generated by the project during the construction phase and by ongoing operations during the twelve years following completion of the project.

In addition to the economic and tax revenue impacts cited above, the proposed project would benefit Rhode Island in several other ways:

- Preserving and reusing a historic mill building;
- Remediating a site with potential environmental hazards;
- Increasing the supply of rental housing in a community with a low vacancy rate; and
- Adding to the Town of West Warwick’s tax base.

Beyond the fiscal impact noted above, there is no anticipated financial exposure to the state. In addition, various features of the program mitigate risk to the state. In particular, the completion risk (i.e. the risk that the project is not completed) is mitigated by the fact that the tax credits will be payable only upon completion of the development. The risk of project cost overruns is mitigated by the fact that the tax credits are capped at the amount set forth above. In addition, if project costs come in lower than anticipated, the tax credits to be paid will be reduced accordingly.

<sup>4</sup> Direct employees in this table include those employed directly by the building management company and contract workers.
