

Participating Local PPP Lenders

Note: List will be updated frequently. Accompanying verbiage provided by banks.

Updated January 13, 2021

BankNewport: Will accept PPP applications from non-customers, but new customers must open a checking account before applying so funds may be deposited.

Berkshire Bank: Will accept PPP applications from non-customers. Berkshire's application portal will be on the bank's website once they go live.

Bristol County Savings Bank: Non-customers may reach out in advance of the SBA accepting applications and BCSB will put them on a list of pending requests to follow-up on. Please contact Joan Medeiros, joan.medeiros@bcsbmail.com, 508-324-3685

Centreville Bank: Non-business customers who want to apply for PPP for the first time can go to Centreville's website www.centrevillebank.com and/or call Centreville's main number 401-821-9100 or 800-377-4424.

Greenwood Credit Union: Will accept new PPP loan requests. Please contact Holly Ferrara, hferrara@greenwoodcu.org, 401-562-2784.

HarborOne: Accepting new PPP loan requests.

Navigant Credit Union: Accepting new PPP loan requests.

Pawtucket Credit Union: Accepting new PPP loan requests.

Washington Trust: The applicants may contact the PPP loan team at 401-340-3466 or at ppploans@washtrust.com. Upon request, the team will send the applicant a link to a PPP loan application. In addition to the phone number and email, in the Customer Solutions Center section of the website under Coronavirus Update, the PPP link will direct borrowers who have not received a previous PPP loan from Washington Trust to submit a request form. Upon receipt, the bank will send a link to the PPP loan application.

###