

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL RFP-2327

For: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Advising for Updated Rhode Island Food Strategy

The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation (“Corporation”) seeks proposals from qualified consulting firms for diversity, equity, and inclusion (“DEI”) consultation. The Corporation and other partners in the State are updating the Rhode Island Food Systems Plan, currently known as Relish Rhody (the “Food Systems Plan”). As part of that update, and State-wide stakeholder engagement activity, the selected proposer will provide subject matter expertise, training, and consultation to embed DEI in the State’s food systems planning and execute an equitable and inclusive process for updating the Food Systems Plan.

This document constitutes a Request for Proposal (“RFP”) in a competitive format, from qualified firms. This request is an offer by the Corporation to underwrite, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this RFP, the services proposed by the successful firm(s), by contract.

The respondents (“Proposers”) to this RFP shall provide a proposal in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, to provide all or part of services to the Corporation on an “on-call” basis as described in the Scope of Work.

Project Overview

The purpose of this RFP is to enter into an agreement with a qualified consulting firm to undertake aspects pertaining to DEI in the planning process of updating the Food Systems Plan. The selected proposer will engage directly with the Corporation, as well as all members of the Plan’s Strategic Planning Team (“SPT”), which is comprised of representatives from the Department of Environmental Management (“DEM”), Department of Health (“RIDOH”), the Narragansett Tribe, and other community partners described below. The selected proposer will consult the SPT as it leads updates to the Food System Plan for Rhode Island from 2024 to 2030, ensuring a more sustainable, equitable, and economically viable food system for all residents. The selected Proposer will work directly with the project’s SPT to ensure that DEI is centered throughout the planning, development, and launch of the updated Food System Plan.

Background

As a quasi-public agency, the Corporation is the official full-service, economic development organization for the State of Rhode Island. The Corporation works with public, private, and nonprofit partners to create the conditions for businesses in all sectors to thrive and to improve the quality of life for its citizens by promoting the State’s long-term economic health and prosperity.

In 2016, the State’s leadership made concerted efforts to establish a statewide food strategy and hire the State’s first Director of Food Strategy. By 2017, a five-year plan was launched, charting a path for a more resilient, sustainable and equitable local food system. The State Food Strategy, Relish Rhody, set bold goals to: 1) grow RI’s local food economy, 2) preserve and grow agriculture and seafood industries, 3) enhance the climate for food businesses, 4) minimize and divert wasted food and, 5) to ensure access to healthy and culturally relevant foods for all Rhode Islanders, particularly RI’s most underserved and vulnerable populations.

There has been significant progress made since Relish Rhody was published in 2017, including, but not limited to, investments in the food system, policy, and regulation reform and increased coordination and collaboration. However, a recent five-year retrospective of Relish Rhody concluded that the report had a major gap around addressing racial equity and justice in the first food strategy. Since the strategy’s launch in 2017, focus on the inequities experienced by low-income communities, the Narragansett Tribe, Native Americans, communities of color, and other historically and currently underserved groups has grown. This is particularly important within the food system where inequities exist surrounding access to healthy and affordable foods, access to capital and business resources, access to land and clean water, equitable job and workforce development opportunities, and other issues exist. The voices and concerns of those most affected by injustice and inequality in the food system were not well represented in the first food plan and should be addressed more directly in the development of a food strategy for the period from 2024 to 2030.

The Corporation and the STP have collectively begun working on an updated Food Systems Plan that can serve as a shared roadmap for how to address ongoing challenges and set shared goals for 2030. These entities, as well as the Advisory Committee they have convened, are committed to ensuring that DEI is central to the planning process.

Reporting & Working Relationships

The selected Proposer will report to the STP and will also work directly with the project’s Justice, Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (“JEDI”) Team Leader and an official representative of the Narragansett Tribe. The selected Proposer will additionally work with the Advisory Committee.

Scope of Work

The selected Proposer will lead the following tasks with collaborative support from the Corporation and the SPT:

Baseline Assessment & Advising

- Conduct a review of the current 2030 strategic planning process design to identify opportunities to further embed participatory practices (e.g., ways to enable communities to play active roles in decision-making) and DEI principles in the development of the 2030 plan.

- Present findings and recommendations from this review to the Steering Committee to both orient members on structuring fair and just decision-making processes as well as update process to be more DEI-focused and more participatory.
- Advise Strategic Planning Team on ways to embed equity, justice, and inclusion throughout the strategic planning process, including through a focus on stakeholder engagement, decision-making, strategy development and evaluation.
- Provide advisory support and expertise to the STP and Strategic Planning Consultant on best ways to center DEI throughout the strategic planning process, such as:
 - Strengthen decision-making processes (e.g., currently adopted a consensus-based model) (Winter 2023)
 - Adoption of working framework including justice, equity, diversity and inclusion principles (Winter 2023)
 - Advice on development of a stakeholder engagement plan (Winter 2023)
 - Co-development of a template for food system briefs to ensure a focus on DEI. Template should contain framing questions to assist authors in approaching brief development through a DEI lens (Winter 2023)
 - Support of strategy development with key stakeholders and general public through listening sessions, strategy sessions and public comment period in collaboration with the Strategic Planning Consultant (Spring 2024)
 - Ensure stakeholder engagement in public launch and early implementation plan is centered on DEI (Summer/Fall 2024)

Training

- Plan and facilitate two equity and justice training sessions for Strategic Planning Team to build shared language and understanding of the history and impact of injustice in the food system and mechanisms to address injustices in strategic planning processes.
- Develop and execution of DEI training module for food system brief coordinators, who are subject matter experts, as well as each brief’s 3-8 contributors. The briefs are 2-4 page documents on particular issues within Rhode Island’s food system that will later inform a strategic action plan. The training module will inform a template containing framing questions to assist authors in approaching brief development through a DEI lens (Winter 2023).

Deliverables

- Compile relevant resources and tools for the STP to utilize throughout the planning process and stakeholder engagement efforts.
- Attend two meetings a month with Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee and provide administrative support as needed (meeting notes, review documentation, create documentation as needed, and provide file management)
- Co-develop and inform a 2–4-page food system brief with a team selected by the STP, which will inform future strategies and goals on “equity” and “racial justice in the food system”.

DEI consulting will be the primary activity of the selected Provider. Proposals should outline how proposed tasks will take place through an hourly rate.

1. ISBE Participation Evaluation (see below for scoring)

- a. The Rhode Island Commerce Corporation encourages MBE/WBE/DisBE participation in this Request. In accordance with Title 37, Chapter 14.1, and Title 37, Chapter 2.2 of the Rhode Island General laws, the Corporation reserves the right to apply additional consideration to MBE/WBE/DisBE up to six (6) additional points in the scoring evaluation as provided below:
- b. Calculation of ISBE Participation Rate
 - i. ISBE Participation Rate for Non-ISBE Vendors. The ISBE participation rate for non-ISBE vendors shall be expressed as a percentage and shall be calculated by dividing the amount of non-ISBE vendor's total contract price that will be subcontracted to ISBEs by the non-ISBE vendor's total contract price. For example, if the non-ISBE's total contract price is $100,000.00 and it subcontracts a total of $12,000.00 to ISBEs, the non-ISBE's ISBE participation rate would be 12%.
 - ii. ISBE Participation Rate for ISBE Vendors. The ISBE participation rate for ISBE vendors shall be expressed as a percentage and shall be calculated by dividing the amount of the ISBE vendor's total contract price that will be subcontracted to ISBEs and the amount that will be self-performed by the ISBE vendor by the ISBE vendor's total contract price. For example, if the ISBE vendor's total contract price is $100,000.00 and it subcontracts a total of $12,000.00 to ISBEs and will perform a total of $8,000.00 of the work itself, the ISBE vendor's ISBE participation rate would be 20%.
- c. Points for ISBE Participation Rate:
 - i. The vendor with the highest ISBE participation rate shall receive the maximum ISBE participation points. All other vendors shall receive ISBE participation points by applying the following formula:

(Vendor's ISBE participation rate ÷ Highest ISBE participation rate X Maximum ISBE participation points)

For example, assuming the weight given by the RFP to ISBE participation is 6 points, if Vendor A has the highest ISBE participation rate at 20% and Vendor B's ISBE participation rate is 12%, Vendor A will receive the maximum 6 points and Vendor B will receive $(12\% \div 20\%) \times 6$ which equals 3.6 points.
